

Project: New Kitchen & Refectory Refurbishment

Due to expansion over past years, the College required their existing dining/kitchen/refectory facilities to be improved, leading to a 2-phase project of refurbishment and new build including a full kitchen facility and additionally a conference suite and associated support areas, and refurbishment of the existing refectory. M&E Services were extensively provided for the commercial kitchen operation that supports the Campus catering demands

Client: St Mary's University College

Architect: Rivington Street Studio Architects

Structural Engineer: MBP, London

Quantity Surveyor: Appleyards DWB, London

Main Contractor: Hutton Construction, Essex

Approx. Total Contract Value: £2.6 million

M&E Services Contract Value: £1.1 million

Appointment: Full Design and Monitoring Duties

Construction: March 2007 – April 2008

